

FEBRUARY 6, 1835.

Read twice, and committed to the Committee of the Whole House to which is committed the bill (H. R. No. 430) for the relief of the legal representatives of Col. Willis Reddick, deceased.

Mr. BAYLIES, from the Committee on Revolutionary Claims, reported the following bill:

A BILL

For the relief of the legal representatives of Tristram Coffin, deceased.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That 3 the sum of eleven hundred and eighty-five dollars and twenty 4 cents, together with such interest thereon, to be computed 5 from the twenty-sixth day of August, seventeen hundred and 6 seventy-nine, as would be due and payable if a certificate had 7 issued for said sum, and been subscribed to the loan created 8 by the act of the fourth of August, seventeen hundred and 9 ninety, be paid, out of any money in the Treasury not other-
10 wise appropriated, to the legal representatives of Tristram
11 Coffin, for the balance due for a schooner owned by him, and 12 captured and destroyed by the enemy while in the service of 13 the United States.
